UBS me
banking package
Two years
free

At each stage of life, we have very different needs, plans and goals which are constantly changing. Whatever you have in mind: perfectly tailored banking will make many things easier and help you on your way.

Wherever you are in life, wherever you work and live, one thing is certain: you have at least one bank account, a debit card, and probably one or more credit cards. After all, a banking relationship with an account and card is the basis for everything related to money – be it electronic or cash.

UBS me – the more individual, the better

The right banking products and services allow you to carry out your daily banking transactions easily and efficiently. Most providers put together ready-made banking packages. Although this is convenient, it also has a disadvantage: set packages are defined for general needs and hardly ever account for individual requirements. With the UBS me banking package, you choose banking that suits you as an individual – with accounts, cards and the benefits that are most advantageous for you.

Four good reasons to opt for UBS me

- 1 Thanks to your employer, the UBS me banking package is free of charge for you for the first two years
- 2 Pay only for the products you need
- 3 Your banking package can be customized at any time
- 4 Automatically benefit from advantages like UBS Digital Banking that perfectly fit your life

Open your individual UBS me banking package with suitable accounts in Swiss francs or euros – the first two years are free of charge.¹

Included in the banking package

In addition to a personal account, a savings account and credit, prepaid and debit cards, the following benefits are automatically included in your UBS me banking package:

- Cash withdrawals from UBS Bancomats
- Manage your finances easily online thanks to UBS E-Banking and UBS Mobile Banking
- Pay easily and securely with UBS TWINT and other digital wallets

Families and couples

Families and couples can also benefit from UBS me – thanks to partner accounts and cards for an attractive flat fee.

Collect points and benefit with UBS KeyClub

With your UBS me banking package, you participate in the free UBS KeyClub bonus program.

Every time you pay with your UBS Credit or Prepaid Card, you earn points for purchases with all KeyClub partners in the KeyClub eStore – one point equals one Swiss franc. Details at ubs.com/keyclub

Individual products to choose from

You also have the option of selecting additional products and modules for an extra monthly fee:

- Customize cash withdrawals to suit your needs with the optional cash withdrawal module “Switzerland” or “worldwide” – both modules are also free of charge for you for the first two years
- Open additional accounts (personal account CHF/EUR, savings account, investment fund account, Fisca account) or apply for additional credit cards
- Many more options
